REDEDICATION OF YANKEE SPRINGS INN

HISTORIC MARKER

APRIL 7TH, 2018 AT 11 am

Rededication of Yankee Springs Inn Historic Marker – April 7, 2018 at 11 am.

May 15, 1966 the Yankee Springs Inn Historic marker was dedicated. Then it was stolen, returned, lost and found again. It will be rededicated on April 7, 2018 at 11 am on the North Country Trail, trailhead, located on South Yankee Springs Road, just south of Gun Lake Road. There will be a hike on the old stagecoach road (Norris Rd) leaving from the same trailhead at 9 am with North Country trail leaders. Following the rededication there will be a reception at Long Lake Recreational Center, 10370 Gun Lake Rd, Middleville MI at the main lodge. Author Carolyn Strite will be selling and signing her book, Yankee Springs Stagecoach Inn. Artist Gus Swenson will have copies of his Stagecoach paintings for sale and greeting cards. Photos and memorabilia will be on display. This has been a cooperative effort of Barry County Historic Society, Chief Noonday Chapter of the North Country Trail, Gun Lake Women's Club, Yankee Springs State Park, Long Lake Recreational Center and Yankee Springs Township. Please join us in keeping history alive.
